

HOW TO SET UP A LEARNING COMMUNITY

Live Q&A webinar worksheet

PREPARATION

"Success is where preparation and opportunity meet" Bobby Unser

Get the most out of the live Q&A by writing down a few things you want to get out of the session before you start. Use these questions to guide you.

What is your dream for your learning community?

What do you feel you have the least knowledge about? Where do you feel most unprepared?

- Guiding principles or values
- Teaching or facilitation
- How to find families
- Forming a team
- Venues
- Finances
- Types of learning communities
- Legal and business structures
- Insurance, risks and training
- Diversity and inclusion

What makes you nervous about setting up a learning community?

Have a read about the expert and their community before the session. What inspires you about it that you want to learn more about?

FOLLOW UP

"You don't have to see the whole staircase, just take the next step" Martin Luther King

Decide what your next steps might be. Use the following prompts to guide you.

What did you find most surprising or enlightening?

Which of these do you need to focus on next?

- Designing your guiding values for your community
- Finding people to work with on the project
- Searching out families who want to be part of this community
- Developing your skills in an area
- Doing some research on venues, funding opportunities or types of learning communities

What is blocking you from making progress? How could you remove or minimise that?

Who do you need to speak to who would help you progress your community idea?

What one thing could you do tomorrow that would take you a step closer to creating your learning community?
